East American Group dba Natural Tea Source, a National market leader of specialty teas is headquartered in Florida.

Natural Tea Source will be introducing their tea line at the Dallas Market Center in January 15th to 18th, 2015.

World Trade Center Booth #: 3806 - Floor: 12

The company has added countless tea varieties to its portfolio within the last several years targeting wholesale, retail and food service. Currently they offer several brands and they are available nationally in Foods Markets, Organic Marketplaces, Amazon.com, National Retail Stores, independent natural food stores & co-ops, and conventional grocery stores. In addition, these brands are distributed worldwide.

The brands include, "Tea of Life", "Silkenty", "Dil's Royal" and recently released "Cup of Life".

Our vision is to inspire the well-being of mind, body and spirit through art of tea. We are here to elevate every consumer's tea experience through innovation and quality, as well as a commitment to the environment.

Our consumers range from young teenagers to college students and adults who are discovering the pleasures of drinking our tea. "We are passionate of our consumers as much as our tea," says VP for Marketing, Juanita Joachim.

The Flavors offered in Tea bags, loose leaf and Iced Teas are irresistible. Offering only the finest quality tea leaves from around the world, we have created the ultimate refreshing Blends that will elevate a consumers Tea experience.

Check out our new awesome Spring Selection. Great Teas to start of Spring with a bursting taste of real fruits.

Wellness Teas are one of the fastest growing segments of teas. We have introduced several functional wellness tea blends in tea bags and loose leaf teas that are naturally caffeine-free and delicious.

We recently introduced our Organic line under "Tea of Life" which is one of the best tasting organic teas available in the market. We use all natural, biodegradable tea bags and our tea boxes are made of re-cycle consumer waste. We strive to foster a healthy, thriving global community while offering the purest, best-tasting tea by supporting organic agriculture and, buying tea through socially certified farms. Our Organic Tea blends offer premium, organic teas and herbs with 100% real fruits, flowers and spices.

We offer a variety of different organic blends in tea bags, loose leaf tea and gifts presentations.

In addition to offering our own brands, we offer private label, custom blends and we can package to specifications.
